The Reunion Concert

If you want an evening of quality entertainment then be in Langham on June 7th. If you want ‘A little of what you fancy does you good,’ then there should be something for you to enjoy.

‘Eclectic’ – well that’s what this show is all about. Where else would you find songs by the brilliant Billy Joel, Gerry Rafferty, Kirsty MacColl, and the Propellerheads, alongside Charlie Chaplin, Duke Ellington, Anthony Newley, Rodgers and Hart, the Kinks, Lennon/McCartney, Barbra Streisand, Gershwin, and many more too numerous to mention?

And you have to have at least one Bond Theme!

It’s not all singing – the men can play a bit too!

- > Show tunes? ... maybe ...
- > Country? ... well ...
- > Standards? ... for sure ...
- > Latin? ... yes ...
- > Rock? ... not heavy metal ...
- > Pop? ... depends how old you are ...

And don’t forget Mozart – he’s sure to turn up one way or another!

Linda writes about 'The Reunion'

Linda met Dave at college.

He was very good at the piano.

She asked him to accompany her.

He did – they formed a group.

Linda met Pete on her first summer season.

He was the sax and guitar in the band.

He was very good at the sax and the guitar.

Pete met Dave, Linda's friend.

Pete and Dave shared a flat in Birmingham.

They were in different bands.

They did some recording together.

Dave met Justin in London.

He was very good at the bass.

They played in West End shows together.

John met Linda and Pete.

John was very good at the drums.

They formed a band.

John met Dave.

They recorded an album with Linda.

Linda was teaching at Gresham's.

Justin was teaching at Gresham's.

Linda told Dave about the great bass player at Gresham's.

Dave said, "Oh – I know Justin!"

It's a small world!!!!
